Basic Bible Knowledge Exam
Information

If you have extensive knowledge of the Bible's content and would like to receive credit by testing, you can do so by taking our Basic Bible Knowledge Exam (BBKE). You can earn up to 15 semester hours at the Undergraduate level only for the successful completion of the BBKE. This is a closed-book exam that is taken over a 2-hour period. The student must have a proctor oversee the exam and be responsible to mail it back to LOGOS Christian College. There is a $50.00 nonrefundable exam fee.

Maximum Cost: $300 for Basic Bible Knowledge Exam = 15 semester hours ($20 per semester hour), Plus $50.00 nonrefundable exam fee. Awarded semester hours are contingent on the score received on the exam. The exam is divided into three parts: Old Testament Narrative, New Testament Narrative and Advanced Old and New Testament Narrative. Credit will be awarded as follows:

- Old Testament Narrative grade of 50 - 75% = 3 credit hours and a fee of $60 or:
- Old Testament Narrative grade of 76 -100% = 6 credit hours and a fee of $120
- New Testament Narrative grade of 50 - 75% = 3 credit hours and a fee of $60 or:
- New Testament Narrative grade of 76 -100% = 6 credit hours and a fee of $120
- Advanced Old and New Testament Narrative grade of 50% or better = 3 credit hours and a fee of $60

Graduate and Post-Graduate Students: This exam is a required pre-requisite for all students entering Logos in a graduate or postgraduate program with a secular degree. The exam is to be taken prior to the first course. The only fee is $50.00. No course credit is awarded; however, this exam serves as documentation of basic Bible knowledge. Potential Graduate Students must score 70% or better. A lesser score will require completion of NTS 501 and OTS 501. Full tuition will be charged. No credit will apply for the Graduate Program.
